I submit that this this advertiser has information on their website which in is breach of PRINCIPLE 2: TRUTHFUL PRESENTATION: Rule 2 (a) Truthful Presentation

The relevant provisions were Therapeutic and Health Advertising Code - Principle 2, Rule 2(a)

The Chair noted the Complainant was concerned the advertisement is making unsubstantiated therapeutic claims which could be misleading.

The Chair accepted the complaint to go before the Complaints Board for adjudication as to whether the advertising breached the Therapeutic and Health Advertising Code. As part of the self-regulatory process, Advertisers have the option of amending or removing their advertising to comply with the Advertising Codes.

The Advertiser removed the wording in the advertisement that had been complained about. Given the self-regulatory action taken in removing the advertisement, the Chair said that it would serve no further purpose to place the matter before the Complaints Board.

The Chair ruled that the matter was Settled.

Chair's Ruling: Complaint Settled
